We've Had Four Wonderful Years

CLASS OFFICERS:

President

James Laktas,
Vice-President

Lois Frank,
Secretary

Harold and Carol were our magazine sales captains. It was boys against girls. Guess which group lost and had the most fun at the party!

Joan McLaughlin and Dick Sanders take a moment to wonder what new opportunities lie ahead.

The Time of Our Lives

The eighth hour of our education was finished. The large old grandfather's clock slowly struck eight in recognition of this fact. Our class was ready to enter Sherrard High School.

There were only forty-seven of us; we were a small class. Just as the hand-crafted clock which timed our education was far superior to modern mass-produced timekeepers, we liked to think of ourselves as something special, and we adopted the motto, "Quality not quantity."

The first stroke of the pendulum in our freshmen year brought the election of officers. We chose Mary Ann Lindburg as our president, Carol Christensen as vice-president, and Gene Lingafelter as secretary-treasurer. We elected Ken Nimrick and Sandra Lovelace as our representatives in the Student Council.

The dreaded second stroke brought initiation, but most of our fears were unfounded. We had to wear ridiculous clothing and smelly make-up, but the party the seniors gave us turned out to be fun, and we found out that the upper-classmen were human after all.

Homecoming was a memorable time for us as freshmen. Our float, "Time for a Victory," appropriately pictured a clock, but due to our inexperience and an untimely rain, we had to settle for Honorable Mention instead of first prize. In the Homecoming Court we were represented by Lois Frank and Bill Epperly.

The clock struck nine and our class began its sophomore year at Sherrard. To lead us in our second year we elected Carol Christensen president, Ken Nimrick vice-president, Pam Lindley secretary, and Sandra Qualls treasurer. To aid in governing the school we chose Lois Frank and Bill Epperly as our representatives in the Student Council.

Homecoming was completely successful this year. With the help of a giant cauldron and a little dry ice, our float, "We're Ready to Boil the Warriors," captured first prize. After the Warriors were "boiled," the Homecoming Dance commenced. Mary Ann Lindburg and Gene Lingafelter were selected as sophomore attendants.

The clock struck ten to signal the end of our first two years of high school and the beginning of our equal period as upper-classmen. We re-elected Carol Christensen as our president; new officers included Sandra Qualls, vice-president, Clifford McMeekan, secretary, and Sandra Lovelace, treasurer. We elected Ken Nimrick vice-president of the Student Council; Mary Ann Lindburg and Harold Stark were selected as our two representatives to that governing body.

Homecoming brought us another first place in the float competition. The theme of our float was "Let's Pick'em Off Like Flies." Susan Bloomquist and Ron Krahf served as our attendants at the Homecoming Dance.

This year we presented our first play, We Were Young That Year, which was directed by Mrs. Mary Jane Hogue. The night of the first performance brought a major power failure, but in true "the show must go on" fashion we presented a large portion of the play by the light of candles. During the second performance there was plenty of electricity, and a large crowd viewed our successful show.

The Prom highlighted the end of our junior year; and after much work, we transformed the gym into our theme, "A Little Bit of Heaven." We were sure that the seniors enjoyed themselves as much as we did.

The clock struck eleven, signifying the beginning of our last year at Sherrard High School. We were now seniors, responsible for setting an example for under-classmen and preparing ourselves for our chosen careers. To guide us in this last, most important hour of our education, we elected Clifford McMeekan as our president, Jim Laktas as vice-president, Lois Frank as secretary, and Richard Clarke as treasurer. Ken Nimrick advanced to president of the Student Council, and we elected Rosemary Seitz and Randle Dhaemers as our senior representatives.

If our class was small when we were freshmen, it was even smaller now, for we had dwindled down to only forty-two persons at the beginning of our senior year. We contended, however, that this merely raised the standard of each member.

Homecoming this year brought us second prize for our float, "We'll Scratch 'em Off." Beth Richardson was crowned Homecoming Queen and Ron Krah1 was selected King. We chose Jim Laktas and Joan McLaughlin as senior attendants at the Homecoming Dance.

Our dramatic offering was an "old time mellerdramer," Bertha, the Beautiful Typewriter Girl. Mr. John Kenney directed the play and guided us toward a performance which was successful dramatically if not financially.

The Prom this year was very enjoyable and the juniors decorated the gym beautifully. We were grateful to them for making our last Prom so memorable.

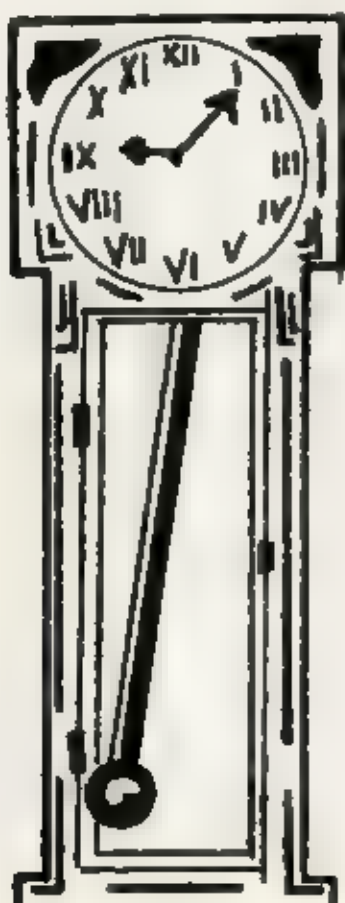

Our senior trip put a crowning touch on the year and made all our magazine selling seem worth while.

Then we donned caps and gowns in time to hear the ominous hour of twelve being chimed. We had finished twelve years of education in the schools of Unit 200. We were well prepared for whatever goal we had chosen, but how we used our preparation was now entirely up to us.

The hands of the old clock started on a new revolution.

Dave -

I hope you have as much success in the future as you've had up till now!

The Sherrard Band started their many activities of the year by performing during the half time of our football games. We led our Homecoming Parade on October 11. We also marched for Augustana's homecoming and took part in their pre-game show on October 20. The pep band played during the basketball season.

The band played Sunday December 16 for their annual Christmas concert. At the Christmas party on December 21, the Dance Band played selections that were enjoyed by all. In February we had an exchange concert with Rockridge. In March the solos and ensembles entered District Contests, and in May they entered State Contests. In the spring we had our spring concert. To end our successful year, we played for commencement exercises in May.

Congratulations to a really
Fine percussionist!

Susan Laughlin won the first prize, a white stuffed cat, for having the best-decorated box. Richard, Julia, and Mr. King admire the ceramics made by the students as a class hobby. It seems like the science club is a lot of fun. Maybe all underclassmen should consider it if they haven't already discovered it.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society was started in our school in 1961. Membership in our chapter is based upon Scholarship (2.5), Service, Leadership, and Character. The object of this chapter shall be to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in students of Sherrard High School.

This year's members are Richard Clarke, Clifford McMeekan, David Junchen, and Ken Nimrick.

The Junior Play

Rosemary Seitz as Nancy, Sandra DeBackere as Aunt Sally, Larry Flynn as Dunny, Diana Plank as Patsy.

Mrs. Thomas Hogue: Director

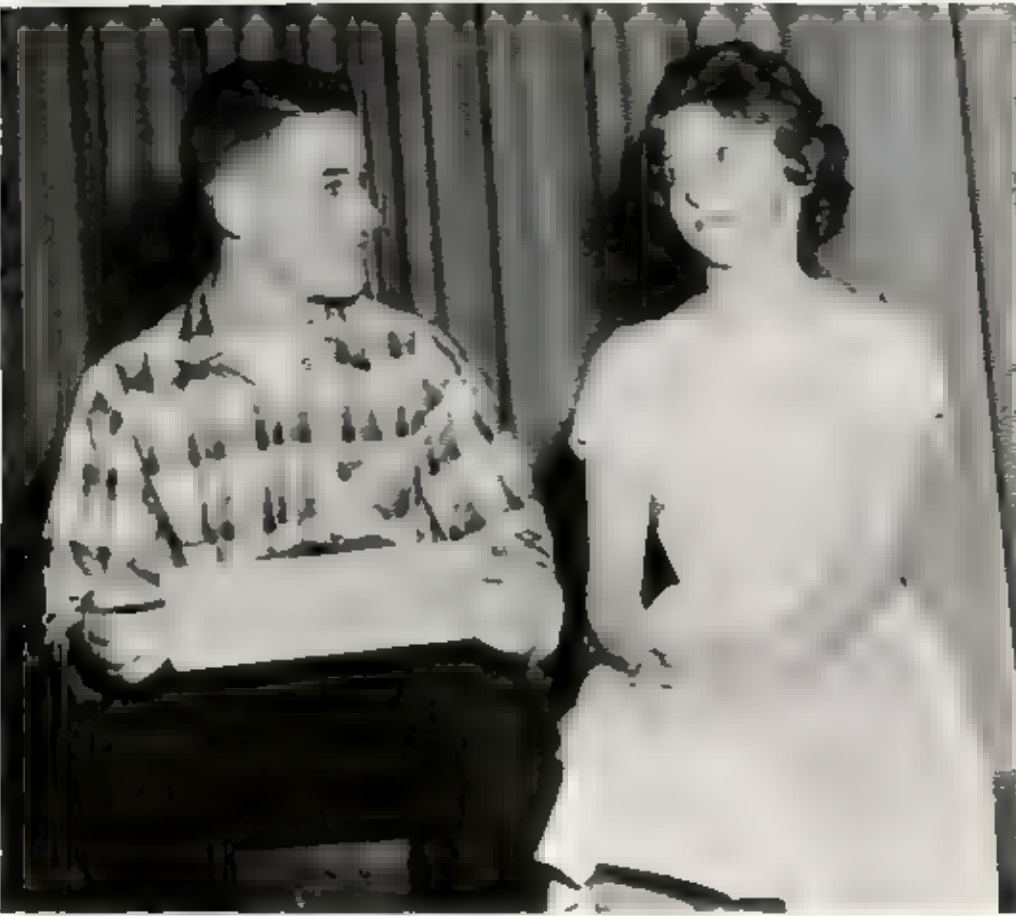

Julia Shirley: Assistant Director
Randle Dhaemers: Stage Manager

What happened to Nancy and Andy? Most people would say it was just an ordinary thing--something that happens to all of us the first time we fall in love. But as Nancy says, "When it happens to you, it seems different. You're going to see all the little things that happened which were so important--like wondering if he'll call again--wondering what will happen on the first date--the smell of popcorn--his hand holding yours at the movies--the formal dance--your last good-bye--all those wonderful moments which change your whole life."

In her life that year were Prudy and Steve who were engaged; Joe, Ernie, and Betsy--three comics with a joke book; Larry, a fraternity man; glamorous Marsha; bird-watching Aunt Sally; a space-crazy younger brother; and of course--Andy.

We Were Young That Year

Andy Thomas, portrayed by Eugene Lingafelter, buys Nancy Hubert's box.

"We all know that all birds fly," says Aunt Sally.

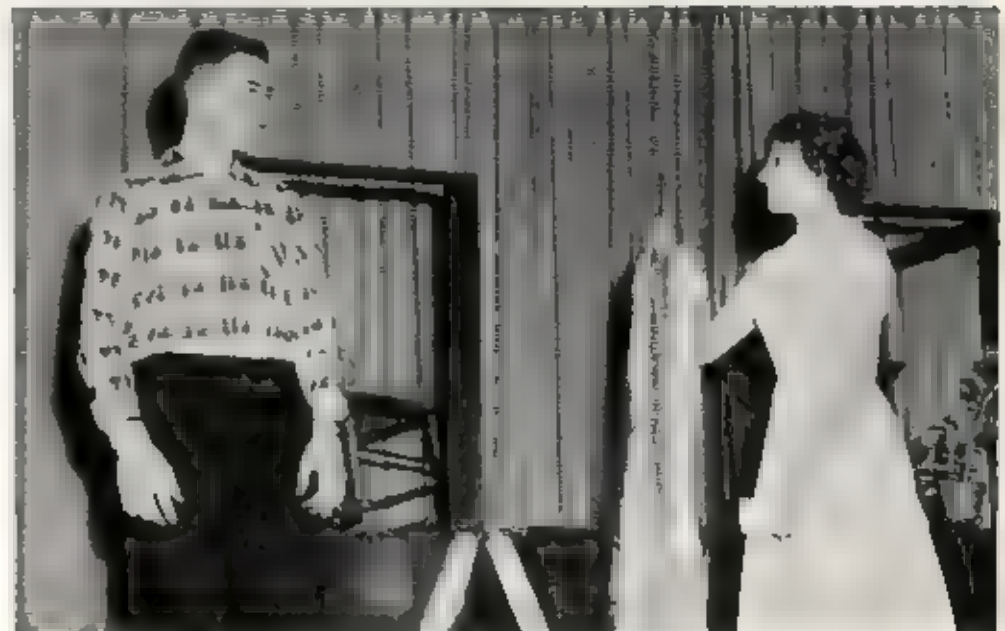

Glamorous Marsha (Juli Ann Redpath) introduces Larry (Dick Sanders) to Andy.

Jeff Clarke as Ernie and Gregory Bloomberg as Joe.

The Nightingale Chorus: Carol Christensen, Carol Martens, Lois Frank, Susan Bloomquist.

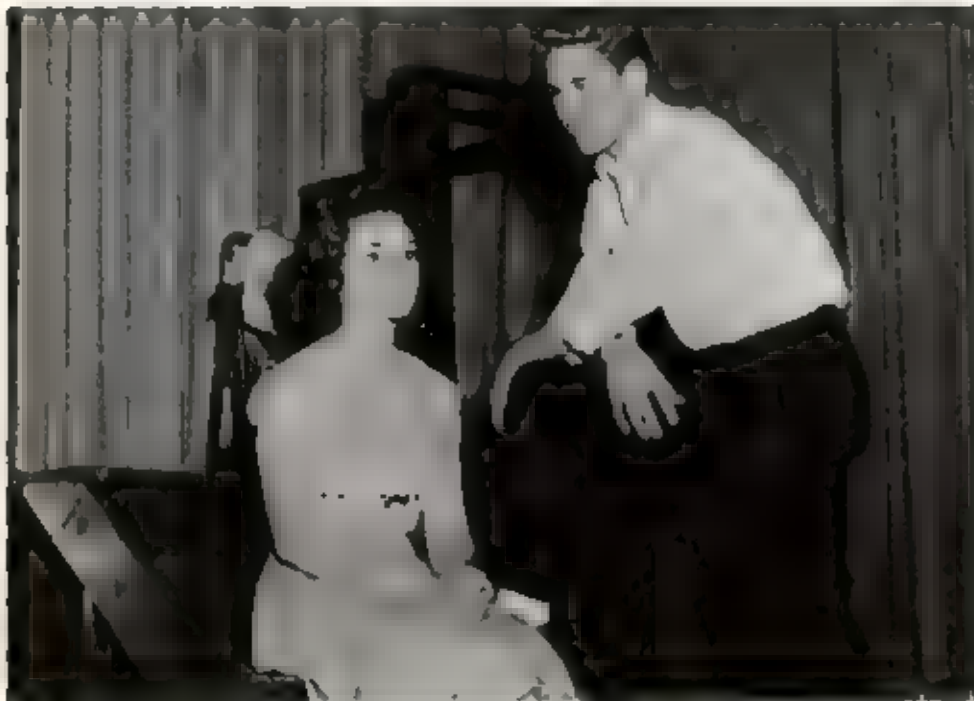

Nancy meets Andy for the first time when he brings the cleaning.

Hollis Beaver as energetic Hudson.

Sandra Lovelace and Richard Clarke at the movies.

Sandra Qualls as Prudy and Ken Nimrick as Steve.

"The circle gets bigger and bigger," says Carol.

Jack (Gary Harder) is auctioning off Marsha's red and white box.

Pam Lindley as Leona and Diane Rind as Elsie seem to be having a good time with Jack.

Larry takes Nancy out in his car!!

Susan Bloomquist as Betsy jokes with Joe and Ernie.

The Make-up Crew is hard at work!

The Senior Play

Randle Dhaemers, Electrician; Greg Bloomberg, Stage Manager; Mr. Kenney, Director; Julia Shirley, Business Manager.

Harold Stark, House Manager; Mary Ann Lindburg, Prompter; Beth Richardson, Make-up Head; Dick Sanders, Properties.

Boswell Bancroft returns from darkest Africa where he has been in search of a fortune in diamonds. He returns with two hundred thousand dollars' worth of the precious gems and dies suddenly of heart failure in the office of Daniel Desmond, an unscrupulous banker, known as "Desperate Desmond." Daniel conspires with one of his henchmen, Glenwood Garfield, to confiscate the fortune and keep it from its rightful owners, Mrs. Bancroft and her beautiful daughter, Bertha. In dire poverty Bertha comes to work as a typist in the office of Daniel Desmond. While there, she meets and falls in love with his son, David Desmond, a pure and noble youth, who is loved by the adventuress, Clarice Claybourne. David's father, who is a widower, also falls in love with Bertha; and when she repulses his advances and he discovers his son's love for her, she is discharged. David goes with her to protect her from the "cruel, cruel world." But Daniel seeks revenge! He stops at nothing to carry out his dastardly, fiendish schemes. One thrill after another occurs until the detective, Bridget O'Casey, who is Mrs. Bancroft's long-lost brother, with the help of Skeets Skinner foils the villains. Bertha and David are united in wedlock and the Bancroft fortune is restored to them.

"Bertha, the Beautiful Typewriter Girl"

Daniel Desmond (David Junchen) listens to Boswell Bancroft (Clifford McMeekan) tell of his discovery.

Glenwood Garfield (Gary Harder) is disguised as "a friend."

Ah! Bridget O'Casey (Jim Laktas) the beautiful Irish lassie fresh from Ireland.

"I lay my heart and hand at your feet," proposes Skeets Skinner (Richard Clarke) to Sally (Susan Bloomquist).

Mrs. Bancroft, Betty Hamerlinck, is comforted by her daughter Bertha, Diana Plank.

"David doesn't love me as I love him," sobs Clarice Claybourne, Rosemary Seltz.

Skeets Skinner has the unscrupulous villain at gunpoint.

"Boswell! Speak to me!" wails Daniel Desmond.

Standish Stuyvesant reveals his true identity to the amazement of everyone.

What's this? A new dance? Perhaps it's a new version of the tango!

"Gadzooks! She has fainted! So much the better, for now I can remove all traces of my guilt forever."

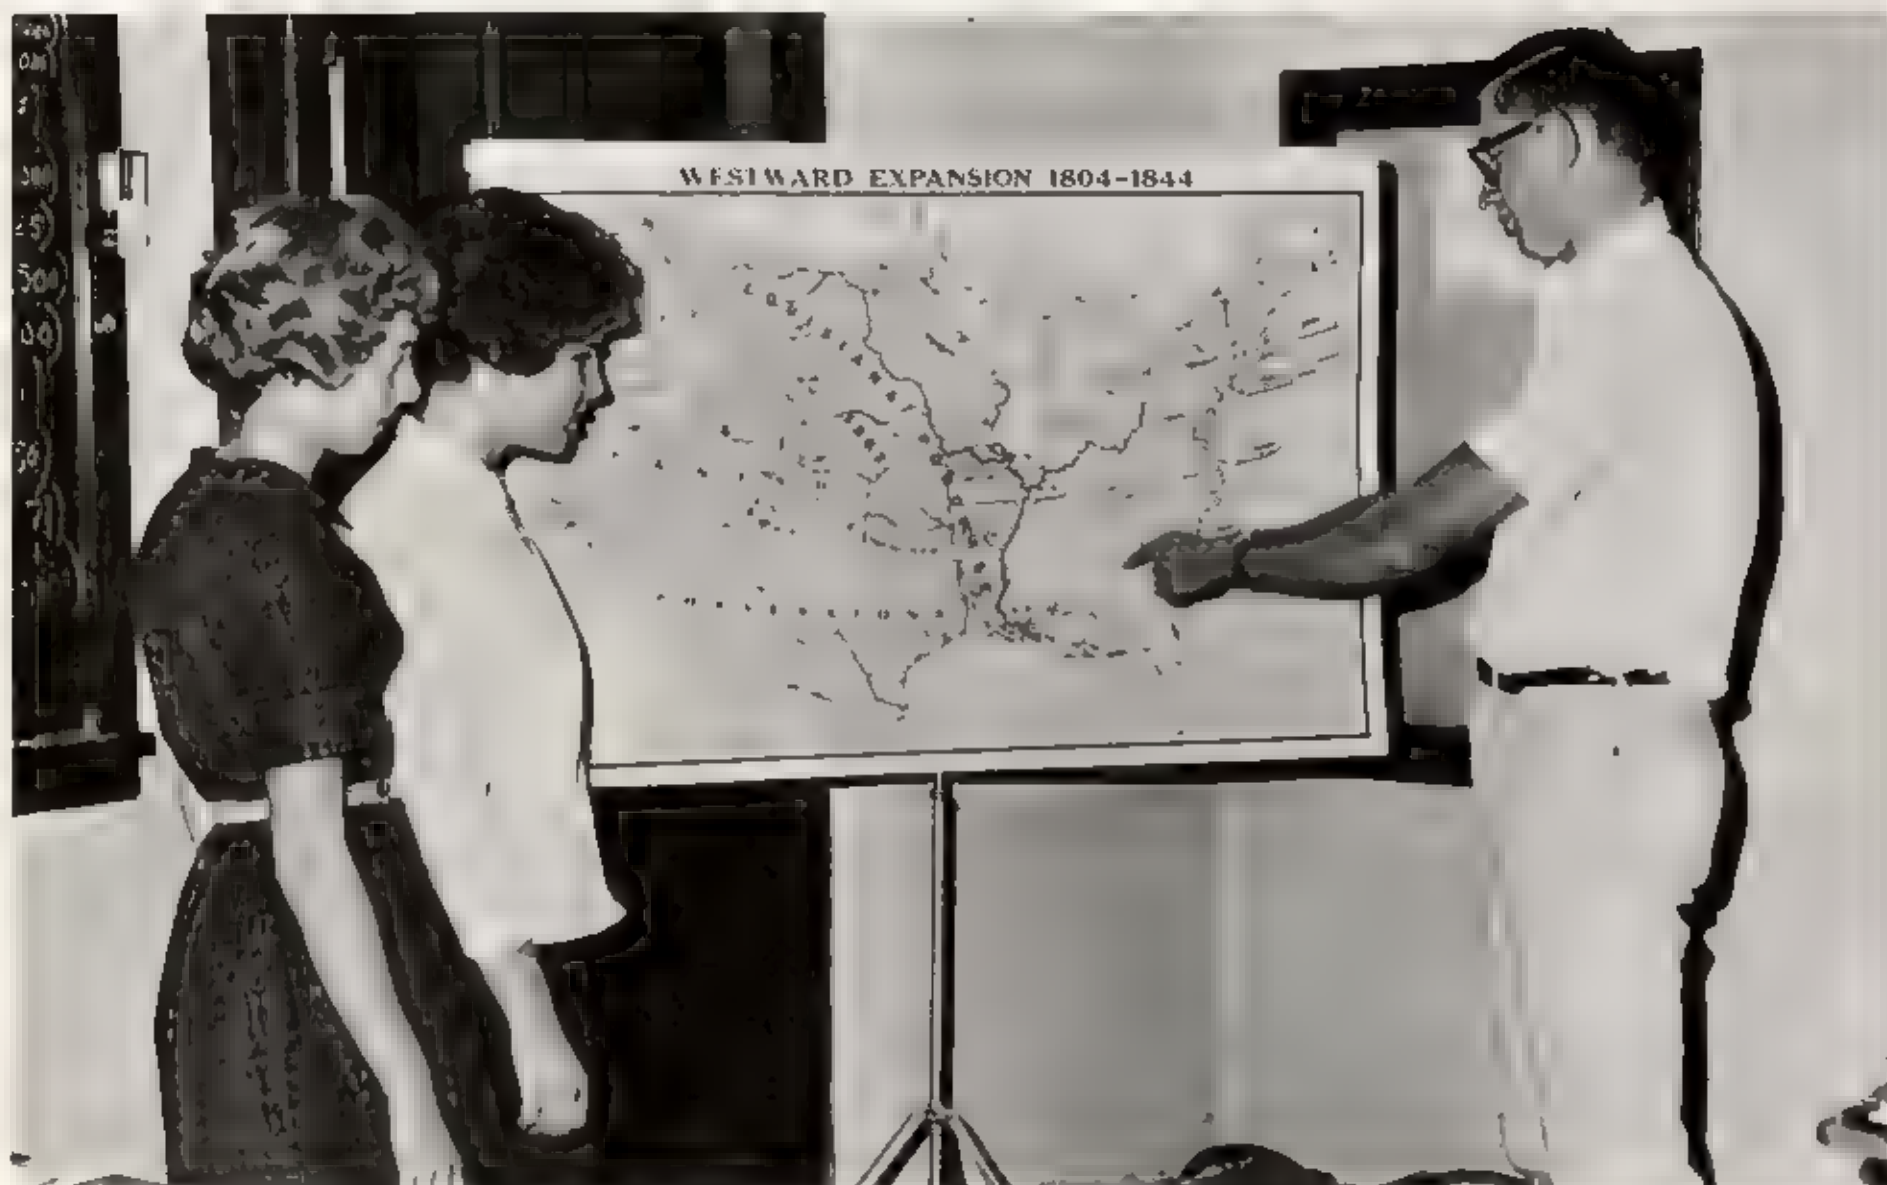

Noble David (Ken Nimrick) protects Bertha from Glenwood's advances.

Peace, contentment, and love reign supreme in Bertha's heart.

As We Move

Mr. Jackson's history class is extremely busy studying the history of our country.

Mrs. Snider's world history class discusses the history of the past and the history of the present day.

From Day to Day

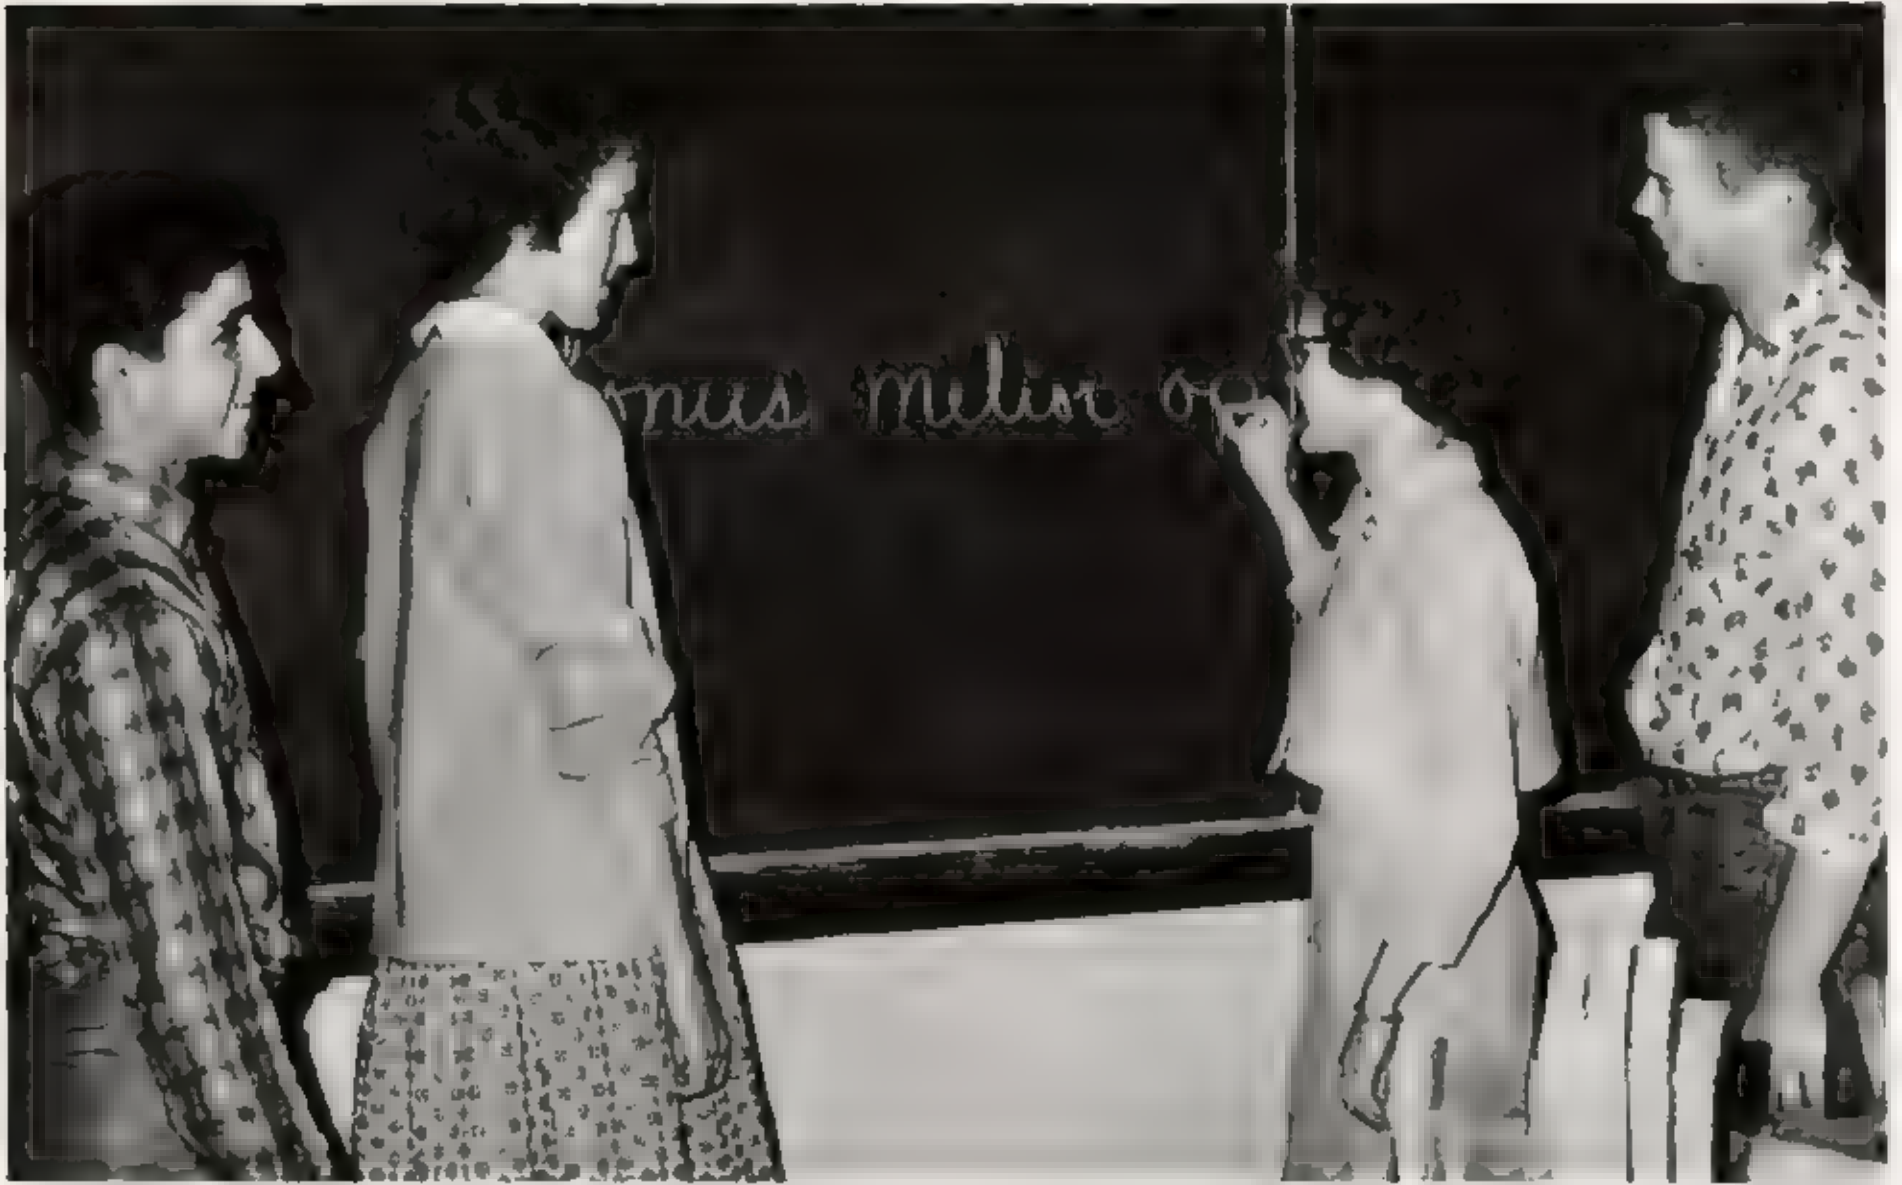

Mr. Winters' bookkeeping class is difficult but very enjoyable as you can see by the expressions on these students' faces.

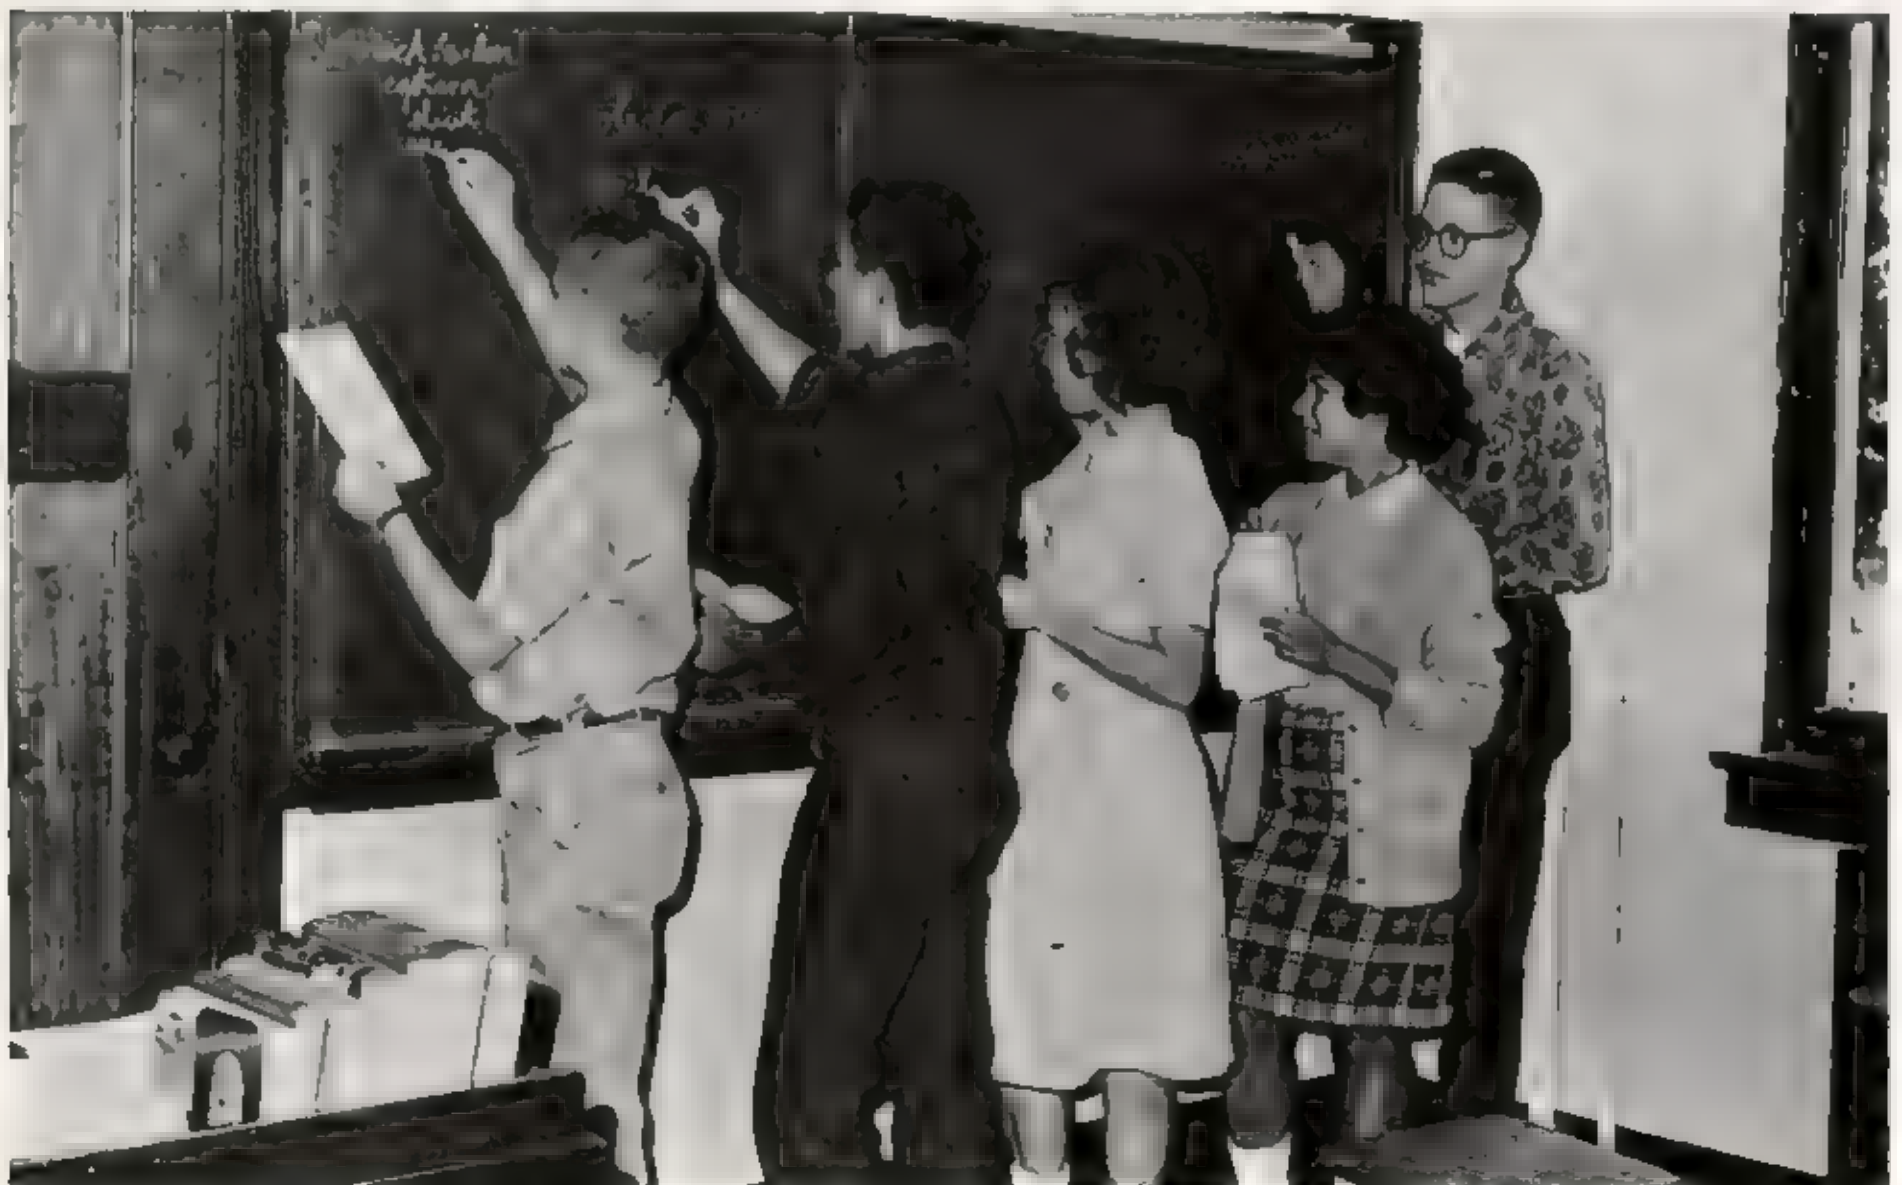

Mr. Junchen's shop boys are kept busy working on their projects.

These Are the Scenes

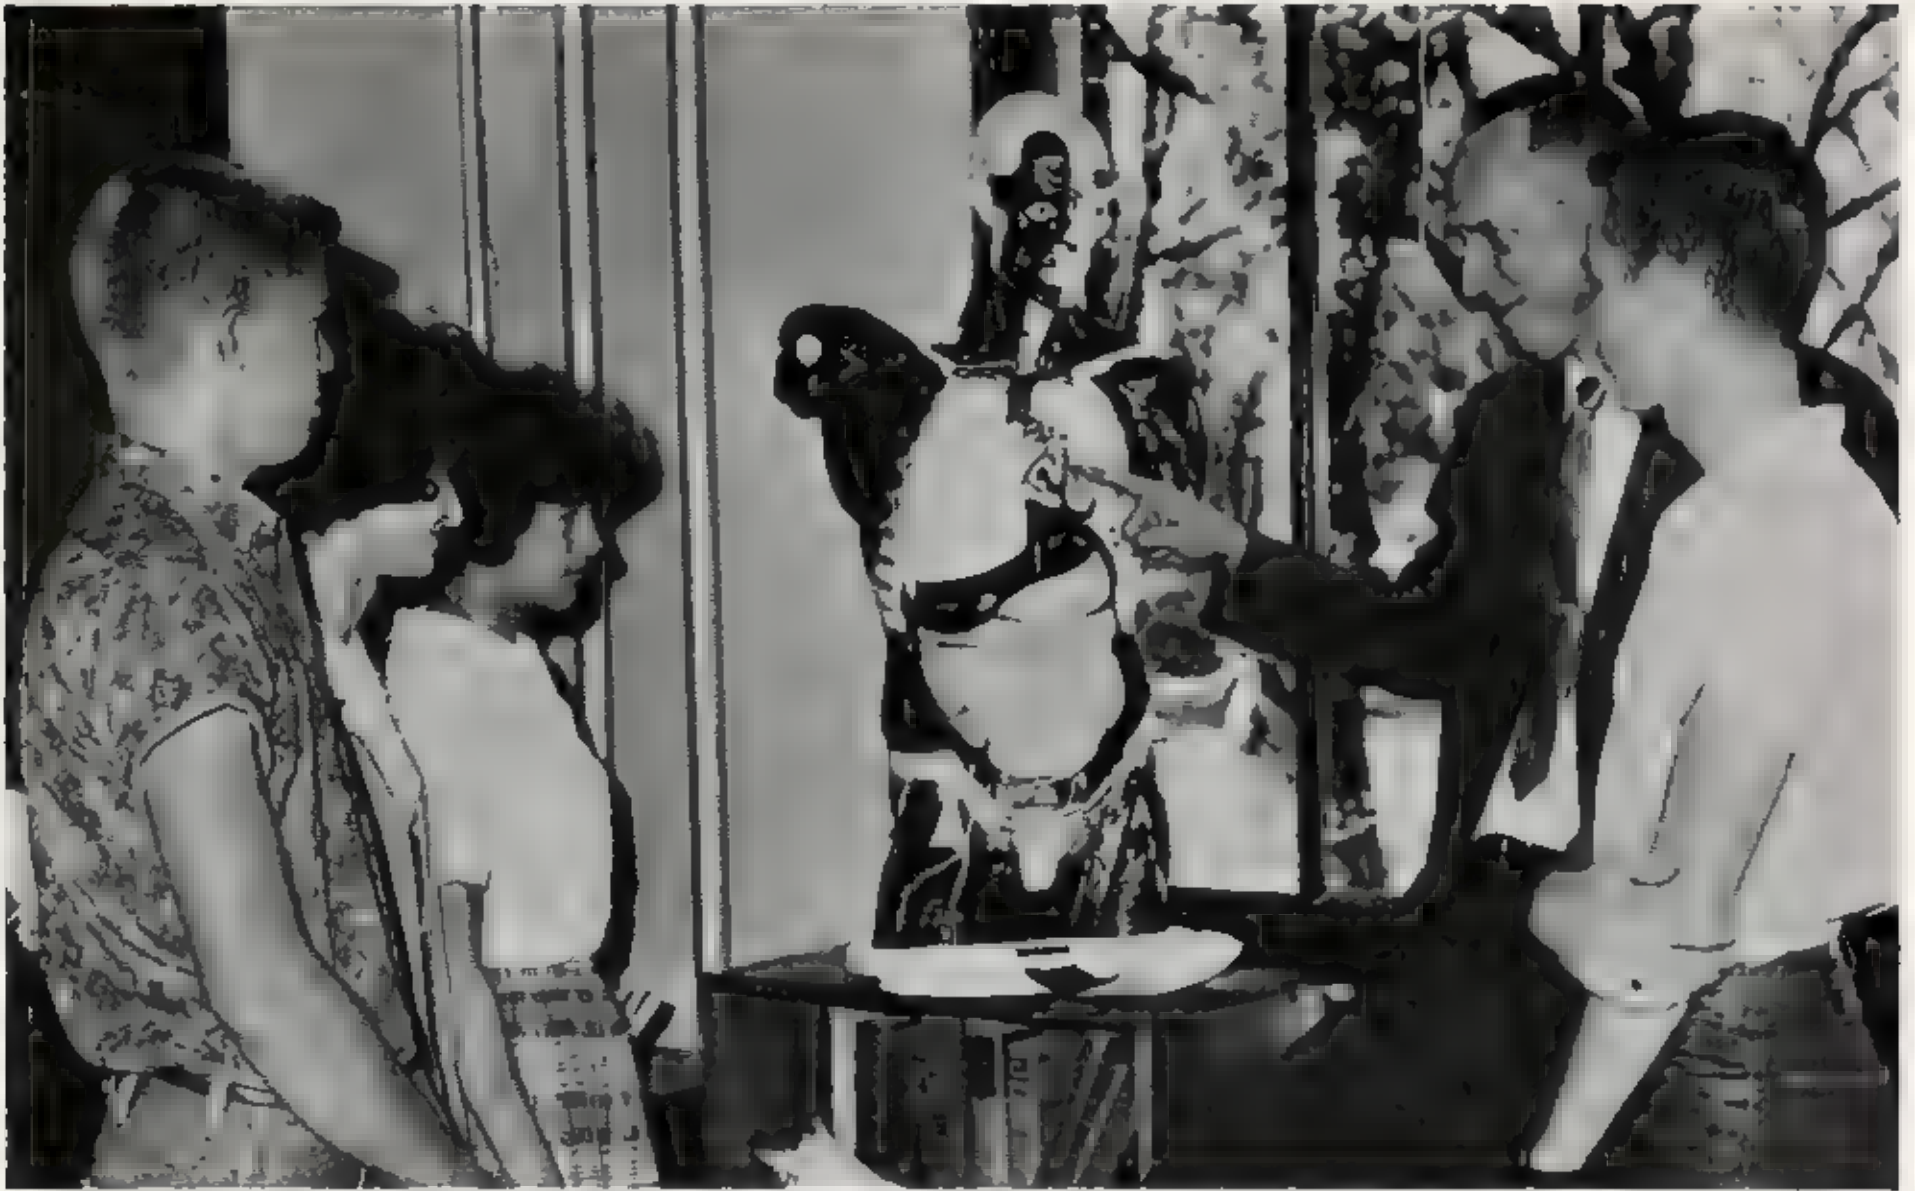

Mrs. King's Latin II students relive the old Roman days. They learn to read and write like the Romans.

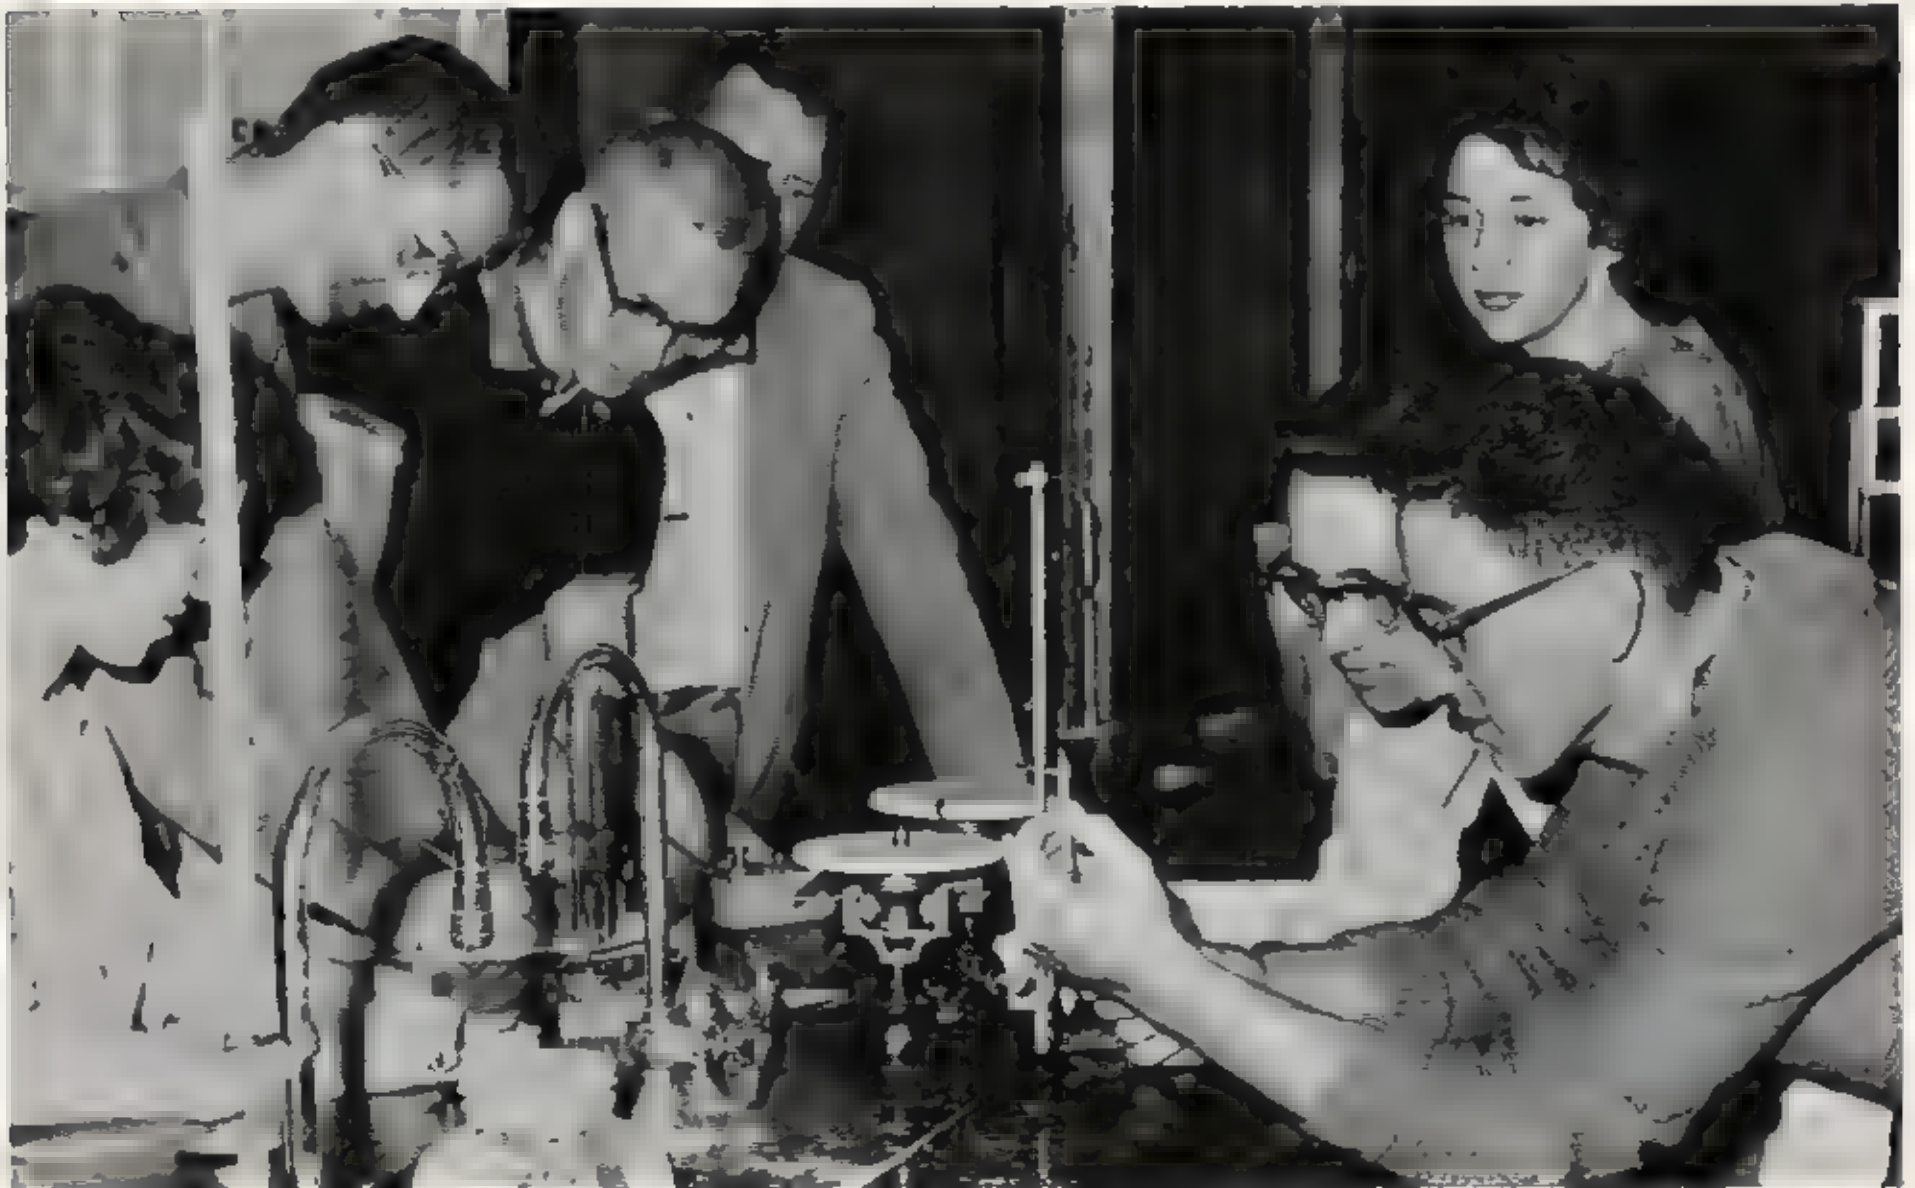

Mrs. Selby's English I students are learning to pronounce and spell difficult words.

That Come Our Way

Mr. Todd is fondly describing the parts of Roscoe, the biology mascot.

Mr. King's physics students are gathering data from experiments in lab.

The Days We Remember Most

by Sandra Lovelace

AUGUST

- TUES. 28: Was that a summer vacation or just a weekend? The summer seemed to go by like lightning, but it was nice to see everyone again.
- WED. 29: The Seniors are up to mischief! It sure looked bad for the Freshmen after the Seniors finished planning for initiation.
- THUR. 30: Election day for the Freshmen! The Freshmen held their first class meeting today to elect class officers.
- FRI. 31: The "almighty" Seniors and the lowly Freshmen! The Freshmen ended their day of carrying the Seniors' books by attending the initiation party, for which the Freshmen weren't exactly dressed in style.

SEPTEMBER

- TUES. 4: Vacations are really over now! Now we'll have to settle down and work as the Labor Day Weekend brings to a close all our vacations.
- WED. 5: Put your voices back to work. Girls' chorus met for the first time. The sopranos were having trouble hitting high notes after resting their voices for three months.
- THUR. 6: Smile for six! The Seniors held their smiles for six pictures. They have high hopes about the turnout of these pictures.
- FRI. 7: Decisions! Decisions! It was hard to choose the eight best girls from all the talented ones who "tried out" for cheerleaders.
- WED. 12: Watermelons and pickles! Hollis Beaver and Dick Sanders tried to sneak a watermelon and a jar of pickles into school . . . something about a wild party for the Seniors on third floor.
- FRI. 14: What a way to start the season! Abingdon held our Tigers by their tails and defeated us 27-0 in our first football game.
- MON. 17: Off to a good start! The Junior Varsity squad was unable to win tonight, but they succeeded in tying Alexis 7-7.
- TUES. 18: Thank you teachers! We enjoyed an early dismissal today due to a teachers' faculty meeting.
- WED. 19: A white wolf in the gym! It was only a stuffed wolf used for a display in our assembly on Antarctica.
- THUR. 20: It's that time of year again. Each class met today to select Homecoming royalty and to plan for their floats.
- FRI. 21: That's more like it boys! The Tigers were real'y growling tonight as they defeated Westmer 20-0.
- TUES. 25: Put on your charm! Group pictures were taken today and Mr. Hull's favorite expression was "Put on your charm."
- WED. 26: Corn for 19! Nineteen boys were given detentions today for throwing corn in study hall.
- THUR. 27: Mary Ann led the way! The FHA rally was held at United Township High School and Mary Ann Lindburg, District President, did a wonderful job of leading the business meeting.
- FRI. 28: The trip was worth it! We traveled quite a long distance to see the football game, but the trip was worth it because we saw our boys beat Cambridge 26-6.

OCTOBER

- FRI. 5: A disappointing homecoming for Alwood! Alwood lost both of its games tonight. Our Senior Varsity won 26-19.
- SAT. 6: All aboard for Freeport! The FTA members spent an enjoyable day in Freeport, Illinois at a state rally.
- MON. 8: The beginning of a busy week! We couldn't decide which would keep us busier, six weeks tests or our class floats.
- WED. 10: As tradition would have it! Our traditional bonfire was held, and all eagerly awaited the announcement of the Homecoming royalty. Congratulations Beth and Ron! The snake dance was wild as usual, and last minute touches were hurriedly added to the floats.
- THUR. 11: The highlight of the year! We were dismissed early for the parade, and no one envied the judges because the floats all looked so pretty. Everyone enjoyed our "twisting" majorettes and cheerleaders. A wonderful day was topped only by a wonderful victory of 21-6 over Winola. The Seniors gave up their "first place" standing (two years straight) to the Juniors and down-heartedly accepted second. Spirits were high at the dance and coronation--a perfect end to a perfect day.
- MON. 15: All wet! Chris spent quite a while trying to get her skirt dry after falling into the sink in the annual room.
- WED. 17: The competition is on! It's boys against girls as the Seniors started their magazine sales. The losers must fix a meal for the winners.
- FRI. 19: Thrill of the season! In spite of the rain and mud our boys gained a piece of the first place standings by defeating Rockridge 19-6.
- WED. 24: United Nations Day! "United Nations Day" was the decoration theme for our FHA Mother-Daughter Banquet.
- FRI. 26: Better luck next year!! We were defeated for the first time by a conference team as Atkinson topped us 22-6. Maybe Sherrard can have first place next year.
- MON. 29: Wide awake??? In spite of the extra hour of sleep no one looked very "wide awake" today as we went back on Standard Time.

NOVEMBER

- FRI. 2: Down in the dumps! The boys seemed to be under par tonight and couldn't stop Orion. We were defeated 31-7, but congratulations anyway fellows, second place is a good "wrap-up" for the football season.
- MON. 5: A busy night in Sherrard! The Sherrard Chapter of FTA was host to over 200 other FTA members and teachers at the Blackhawk Division Meeting.
- FRI. 16: Bertha didn't do much typing!! The Seniors presented a melodrama entitled BERTHA, THE BEAUTIFUL TYPE-WRITER GIRL. The characters seemed to be so busy with their problems that there wasn't much office work done.
- MON. 19: "The hand is quicker than the eye!!" We all enjoyed our assembly on magic. Jack and Joyce made quite a display of their knowledge of magic too.
- WED. 21: Turkey, here we come!! We all looked forward, with eager anticipation, to the Thanksgiving turkey and all the trimmings.
- MON. 26: Stuffed for days!! Everyone seemed to move extra slow today after four days of feasting.
- TUES. 27: Starting the season right!! Our boys started the basketball season with a "bang" by defeating Alexis 39-35.
- FRI. 30: That's the way the ball bounces!! We didn't do too well tonight against Aledo. We were defeated 58-38.

DECEMBER

- TUES. 4: Tests and socials! The Senior girls took the Betty Crocker test and found out how much or how little they know about homemaking. The science club held a box social which turned out very successfully. Susan Laughlin's box won first place, and Ron paid $10 for Iona's box.
- FRI. 7: Oh! Not again! We had another one of those nights. Our boys just couldn't seem to make their baskets and lost to Atkinson 44-37.
- TUES. 11: That's more like it!! We held all the cards tonight and defeated the Alwood Aces 58-38.
- SAT. 15: Left behind!! Orion charged off and left us waiting at the gate. They won 48-64.
- SUN. 16: 'Tis the season to be jolly! The chorus and band started off the Christmas season with the annual Christmas Concerts.
- MON. 17: It would have been a long walk!!! Forty bus riders started to walk to Matherville when their bus was late this afternoon. The bus picked them up just outside of Sherrard and saved them from a long walk.
- TUES. 18: Let's have a party!! The FTA members celebrated Christmas with a party at Mr. and Mrs. Winters'.
- FRI. 21: Santa's little helper?? Mr. Kenny was Santa's little helper at the Christmas party sponsored by the Student Council. We wished everyone MERRY CHRISTMAS and went home to enjoy the Holidays.

JANUARY

- WED. 2: A fashion show started the new year. It was nice to see all the new clothes that were received for Christmas presents. It was hard to write 1963 after twelve months of writing 1962.
- FRI. 4: The headlines read, "Sherrard dumped Winola." We led all the way through the game to defeat Winola 53-41.
- WED. 9: "The Second Time Around" was our theme song for tonight's victory. We defeated Winola the second time in five days with a score of 50-45 in the first leg of our journey in the Cornbelt Tournament.
- THUR. 10: High spirits paid off for our boys!! After a high-spirited Pep Assembly, we sent our boys off to defeat Orion 44-37 in our second appearance at the Cornbelt Tournament.
- SAT. 12: The tables were turned!! Last year we met Westmer for the Cornbelt Championship Game and defeated them. This year they got even by defeating us 48-36, but that second place trophy will look great in our trophy case. Congratulations Tigers!
- TUES. 15: Rest up for a victory!! We were dismissed early for a faculty meeting, and the boys seemed to profit from the rest, for they defeated Rockridge 78-71.
- WED. 16: Can you cook a meal for us Lois?? Lois Frank was awarded with the Betty Crocker Homemaker Award today, and we're going to make her "live up" to her award.
- THUR. 17: Who said, "Teachers like to give us tests"? The teachers seemed to be groaning as loud as the students today as the first day of Semester Tests ended. They're going to have a lot of papers to read and grade.
- FRI. 18: That first quarter lead didn't last long!!! After our first quarter lead, it was Cambridge all the way to a 55-45 victory.
- TUES. 22: Three isn't always a charm!! Excitement was high tonight as we sat through a triple overtime. Three was a charm for Westmer but not for us. They defeated us 47-45.
- THUR. 24: Minus 25 burrrrr!! We enjoyed the vacation we got yesterday and today due to the cold weather and drifting snow.
- FRI. 25: Too close for comfort!! We all sat on the edge of our chairs as our boys defeated Alwood 45-44.

FEBRUARY

- FRI. 1: Have you been eating your carrots? Some of us received bad news after getting our eyes checked today. The Tigers came through with another close game tonight by beating Orion 36-35.
- TUES. 5: It's the second half that counts!! Knoxville showed us that the second half is the deciding half of a basketball game by pulling ahead of us to win 86-56.
- WED. 6: That long awaited day finally arrives. The Juniors cheerfully paid their $5 down payment towards the purchase of their class rings.

- THUR. 7: A debate for royalty!! The FHA met to nominate the candidates for Sweetheart king. A heated debate about the qualifications of a king was the highlight of the meeting.
- MON. 11: Problems with Tina!! The Sweetheart Swirl began with "oo's" and "ah's" over formals and corsages and ended with a big brother helping his little sister make her debut, a coronation, and flashing cameras. Our crown bearer Tina Laktas, needed moral support from brother Jim as she made her way to the thrones to crown Queen Lois and King Tom.
- TUES. 12: A day of rest!! We all had a chance to rest up from last night's dancing because it was Lincoln's birthday--no school.
- FRI. 15: All even at 6. After Cambridge handed us a 65-54 loss tonight, our conference standing is even with six wins and six losses.
- TUES. 19: It was smooth sailing all the way!! Rockridge was never a threat to us tonight as we cleared a 67-53 victory.
- FRI. 22: A free day for everyone but the teachers. Due to Teachers' Institute, everyone except the teachers enjoyed a free day off. After resting up all day, we were yelling loud and strong for our Tigers tonight as they defeated Westmer 56-44.

MARCH

- FRI. 1: March came in like a lamb and so did the Tigers. March started off unusually calm and sunny, and our Tigers seemed to be mild too as they were unable to control Rova and were defeated 66-47.
- MON. 4: Our season ended with excitement!! We met Yorkwood here tonight for the 1963 Regional Tournament. It was a close game all the way, but in the last seconds of play we were defeated by the Bears by a score of 59-52. Thus ends our basketball season. We are all proud of our boys! They brought home a second place trophy from the Cornbelt Tournament, and they finished the season with a fine third place. Thank you Mr. Jackson and boys for an enjoyable basketball season.
- TUES. 12: We are proud to announce! The Seniors met today to select their Graduation announcements. The "big day" is not far off.
- THUR. 14: I didn't know the gun was loaded!! We had a very interesting assembly on the Science of Safety today. The dangers of guns, dust, and automobiles were discussed. Our eyes were opened to a lot of hazards around our own home.
- THUR. 21: A tribute to the 50 states. A tribute was given to Alaska, Hawaii, Oklahoma, and many of the other states during the annual spring Chorus Concert.
- WED. 27: Aren't dads wonderful? The FFA members honored their fathers tonight at the Father and Son Banquet. There's nothing like a night out with Dad, right boys?

APRIL

- MON. 1: The school's on fire!!! April Fools! Things like this went on all day.
- WED. 3: Which was better, the food or the awards? The annual Athletic Banquet was the highlight of a fine sport's season.
- THUR. 4: April is "beauty" month!! Beauty was the F.H.A. theme for April. Margaret and Lynn presented a program on the do's and don'ts for beauty.
- THUR. 9: Is it possible?? Today marked the end of the fifth six weeks. It's hard to believe that the school year is almost over. The Seniors have stopped looking forward to Graduation. Now they want to be Freshmen again.
- FRI. 12: In your Easter bonnet. There was no school today due to Easter vacation. This is the time for Easter egg hunts and new dresses.
- FRI. 19: Due to difficulty beyond our control!!! Because of power failure, last year's Juniors had to alter their stage performance. This year the Juniors were hoping that they wouldn't have any problems during their play, "THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING YOUNG."
- MON. 29: This is getting confusing!! Here we are back on Daylight Time again.

MAY

- FRI. 3: Will practice pay off?? The track season officially started today with a track meet at Rockridge.
- TUES. 7: This is the day we've been practicing for!! The long hours of practicing paid off for the Chorus members as they met at Alwood for the annual Chorus Festival.
- FRI. 10: Juniors' turn!! The Seniors got to relax this year because the Juniors had to do all the work in preparation for the Junior-Senior Prom.
- SAT. 11: The long hours of planning and saving were worth it!! With their suitcases packed and their farewells said, the Seniors boarded the Chicago bound bus. Spirits were high, and everyone felt that the time spent in planning for the trip and in raising money for it were well spent.
- SUN. 19: Perfect timing!! The Seniors were in perfect step during the Baccalaureate ceremonies. Each step led us closer to Graduation.
- THUR. 23: We won't miss this!!! As the Seniors reminisce in later years, we are sure they won't miss the semester tests they took yesterday and today.
- FRI. 24: Breaking up is hard to do!!! After the presentation of awards, the last day of school was ended with the presentation of diplomas. With tearful good-bys, the Seniors watched the doors of their High School days close behind them. Behind them will be the best days of their lives--before them, a new life.
